ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND CONFESSION

What's so funny ...?

"As I walk through this wicked world, searchin' for light in the darkness of insanity. I ask myself. Is all hope lost? Is there only pain and hatred and misery? And each time I feel like this inside there's one thing I want to know. What's so funny 'bout Peace, Love and Understanding? What's so funny 'bout Peace, Love and Understanding?"

And as I walk on through troubled times. My spirit gets so downhearted sometimes. So where are the strong? And who are the trusted? And where is the harmony, sweet harmony? Cause each time I feel it slippin' away, it just makes me wanna' cry. What's so funny 'bout Peace, Love and Understanding?"

Are these the words of some great Prophet? No not really, just a concerned human being. These are the words to a hit song put out by Elvis Costello in 1978. The song was originally written by Singer/Songwriter/Producer Nick Lowe in 1973. He liked to say it was a Post-Hippie song. It started out to be a joking/funny song. As he was writing it, he actually got more into the message (Divine Intervention maybe?) and made it more substantial.

In this week's readings we start out with Jeremiah sharing God's word on how to be strong in God's defense. "But do you gird your loins: stand up and tell them all that I command you". Have faith in God's will and ways.

The second reading from St. Paul is very familiar to many of us. It is used at most weddings (as it should be). It is a poem-like, song-like teaching of the virtue of love. This love he speaks of is more than love between two people. It is a love to be shared with all mankind, believers and non-believers. In the Gospel, Luke tells us of Jesus being driven out of town for trying to share this same message.

In Paul's letter his message is about action on behalf of the other, it is not about passive or complacent love. The reading ends with "So faith, hope, love remain, these three: but the greatest of these is love". My take on this is Faith and Hope could be shared but are more "me" centered. Whereas Love is to be shared with all.
